

WE James Byrnes O D Bearden & C M Hamilton

bind ourselves to pay to the State of Tennessee, the penal sum of Ten Thousand and No Cents dollars; to which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves, our heirs, administrators, or executors, jointly and severally, sealed with our seals and dated this 3rd day of January 1842

The condition of the above obligation is such, That if the above bounden James Byrnes rights and credits of John Byrnes — administrator of all and singular the goods and chattels, made, a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods and chattels, rights and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession or knowledge of him, the said James Byrnes or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons for him, and the same so made, do exhibit or cause to be exhibited to the next County Court, where orders for administration passed; and the same goods, chattels, and credits, and all other, the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, at the time of his death, or which at any time after shall come to the hands or possession of the said James Byrnes — or into the hands or possession of any other person or persons for him do well and truly administer according to law; and further, do make or cause to be made, a true and just account of his said administration within two years after the date of these presents, and all the rest and residue of the said goods, chattels and credits which shall be found remaining upon the said administrator's account, the same being first examined and allowed by the County Court, shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively as the same shall be due unto, pursuant to law; and if it shall appear, that any last will and testament was made by the deceased, and by the executor or executors therein named, do exhibit the same into court, making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly, if the said James Byrnes above bound; being thereunto required; do render and deliver the said letters of administration (approbation of such testament being first had and made) in the said court; then this obligation to be void and of none effect, or else to remain in full force and virtue.

Approved by the court.
